

000000000000 A TAME AFFAIR

Was the Bout Between Oscar Gardner and Tommy Hogan at Pitts-burgh-Under an Agreement There Was No Decision. PITTSBURGH, Jan. 23. — Osc.

Gardner, of Wheeling, and Tommy Ho gan, of Pittsburgh, met here to-night under an agreement of no decision if both men were on their feet at the end of ten rounds. Hogan had the advantage of ten pounds in weight, but on the whole the exhibition was to me and disappointing to the spectators. Gardner boxed in his favority style, leaving himself open for a chance to counter on Hogan's body. Rounds 1 and 2 were Gardner's ord clever countering. In the third and fourth Hogan succeeded in receptains Gardner's face, but not heave age of ten pounds in weight, bed on the resecting Gardner's face, but not heavresecting Gardner's face, but not heavly. Gardner evened matters in the fifth with a vicious left jab on Tommy's faw. From then until the close of the entertainment there was simply a repetition of the men's tactics without a knock down or other rudeness.
The fight by rounds was as follows:
First round-Opened with both parties sparring, Gardner putting several light taps on his opponent's wind.
Round tame throughout. No fighting done.

Ignit taps on 'his opponent's wind. Round tame throughout. No lighting done.

Second round—At the start Hogan made a swing, Gardner ducking eleverly, slipping to the floor. They exchanged light taps in the face. The crowd began to hiss at the close of the round. Round three—Gardner opened with a left jab in face and received left swing from Hogan. Gardner was seemingly too fast for Hogan and was again hissed from Hogan. Gardner was seemingly too fast for Hogan and was again hissed for not going at his man.

Round four—Both men mixed things up and the referee separated them after a full minute hugging.

Round five—Hogan managed to get his left to Gardner's face, but Gardner responded with a stiff punch in wind. Round closes with things mixed and Gardner doing some fast work. The sixth, seventh and eighth rounds were very-tame and the audience called Murphy and Kerwin, who put up a rattling six-round preliminary.

In the ninth round the crowd began to get uneasy and the fighting did not improve in interest. Both parties clinched often in this round.

The tenth round closed with loud hisses from the audience, who were evidently disgusted with the fight. Clinches were the main features of this round, no blows being struck.

The preliminary seemed to take better than the star event and several times during the main bout the preliminary men were called upon to re-enter the ring.

THE ST. LOUIS MIX-UP Judge Spencer Decides Against Von Der Abe.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 22.—In the circuit court to-day Judge Spencer rendered his decision in favor of the plaintiff in the case of the Mississippi Valley Trest company vs. Sportsman's Park and This was the case in which the trus company asked leave to foreclose on all the property belonging to the Sportsman's Park and Club, to secure the payment of $20,000 worth of first bonds sued by that corporation to the trust company,

Chris Von der Ahe had entered a plea that the mertgage did not cover the St. Louis franchise in the National league and American association of base hall clubs, and that the franchise was his own exclusive and personal propriy.

Judge Spencer decided that the mortgage was so worded as to caver the base sall franchise. He admitted that the franchise had at one time belonged to the St. Louis Base Ball Association, but assected that Von der Ahe had transferred it to the Sportsman's Park
and Club by allowing that corporation the use of it and by personally conducting the affairs of both associations himself. In every issue named in the suit the court ruled against the defendant and Von der Ahe personally.

Chris Von der Ahe was not in court when Judge Spencer rendered his decision, but his attorney, Mr. Kinnerk, was there. As Mr. Kinnerk left the court room he said: "We have four days
in which to appeal from the decision,
but judging from the looks of things that will be overruled. In that event the case will he taken to the supreme court and bond given. While the case is pending in the supreme court no netion can be taken toward foreclosing
the mortgage."

The Colonels are Signing. Judge Spencer decided that the mort-

Wheeling Turners Defeated.

The basket ball team of the Wheeling Turnverein was defeated by their old rivals, the Central Turners, of Pittsburgh, at the hall of the Germania Turner Society, of Steubenville, on Sunday afternoon, by a score of 31 to 1. The Wheeling team, which was made up of Herman Freldrich, Fred Brandfass, Gus Wilhelm, Carl Huggins, Lawrence Hermann and Will Bruhn, considered themselves lucky to score against the strong Pitsburgh team, as on a previous occusion Wheeling played a tie game against the substitutes of the Pitsburgh Centrals, Wheeling was outplayed at every point of the game. About twenty-five, Wheeling ban. was outplayed at every point of the game. About twenty-five Wheeling people went up on the Wheeling & Lake Eric to witness the contest, Some money is said to have changed hands.

Klondike Gold Output.

He brings news that Domin-len creek has just jumped into promiion creek has just jumped into proni-nence as a gold producer of the first rank, excelling Bonanza and equaling Eldorado. Its claims are not as rich as a limited number on Eldorado, but its length is greater. Dominion and Eldo-rado together will produce from $10,-000,000 to $12,000,000 at the spring clean-up. A conservative estimate puts the winter output of the Klondike at $20,-000,000, doubling the output of last win-ter.

To Bar Polygamists.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 23.—Representative Clarke, of Iowa, to-day in-troduced a bill providing "that no polytroduced a bill providing "that no polygamist shall be a senator or representive." It provides "that no person living in or practicing polygamy shall be eligible to be a member of either house of the [Congress of the United States, nor shall such person be permitted to hold a seat therein." It is further provided that the evidence of polygamy shall be of whatever nature that establishes the fact. Another provision makes the act take immediate effect.

Judge Dellenbaugh's Case.

CLEVELAND, O., Jan. 23,-The cir-cuit court overruled the demurrer to the disbarment charges against Judge F. E. Dellenbaugh to-day. In answer to the points raised by the defense the court held that it had jurisdiction in the case and that the charges were suffi-cient, if proved, to justify Judge Del-lenbaugh's disbarment.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 23.—The at-torneys for Mrs. Cordella Botkin, con-victed of the murder of Mrs. John P. torneys for Mrs. Cordella Botkin, convicted of the murder of Mrs. John P. Dunning, of Dover, Del., and vecomemended for life imprisonment, appeared before Judge Cook to-day and asked for a continuance on the ground that

Mrs. Botkin had been convicted of the crime in a state which lacked jurisdiction in the matter. It will be remembered that when the extradition proceedings were in progress with the possibility of Mrs. Botkin being sent to Delaware for trial, her attorneys fought strenuously for the trial to be held here, arguing with success that the state of Delaware lacked jurisdiction.

AMUSEMENTS.

Hoyt's "A Milk White Flag" was seen in Wheeling for the first time last night, and its reputation having preceded its appearance, the company was greeted by a full house, with the "Standing Room Only" sign out. The Hoytlan humor is just as brilliant as ever, and the audience was kept busy expressing its enjoyment throughout the performance. The scenery, all special, was very fine and added to the completeness of the entertainment. Miss Mary Marble made a decided hit Miss Mary Marble made a decided int as the orphan, her singling in the sec-ond and third acts being received with great pleasure. The entire company was strong, as is usual in companies producing Hoyt plays. "A COUNTRY MERCHANT."

That sterling actor, Charles Cowles, supported by a company of capable supported by a company of capadie people, presented "A 'Country Mer-chant" at the Grand Opera House last night, before a very large and very well pleased nudlence. The play is very strong and demands intelligent handstrong and demands intelligent hand-ling by good people, and that is what it received last evening. Mr. Cowles, as Eben Baxter, gave a strong impersona-tion of a most lovable and admirable character. The scenery, carried espe-cially for this production, was a pleas-ing feature of the entertainment. Dur-ing the progress of the play a number of pleasing specialties are introduced, among which were the "Country Mer-chant" quartette and the "Three Rubes." The engagement continues this evening, and closes to-morrow with a matinee and night performance.

"NATURAL GAS."
There is a rare treat in store for the lovers of legitimate farce comedy next Saturday, January 23, matinee and night, when Edward Girard's famous comedy, "Natural Gas," appears at the Opera House. Mr. Girard will be seen in his original character of Whirlem O'Rourke, and this season is introducing many new and novel specialties, bits of business, etc., never before seen in the other productions of this famin the other productions of this fam-ous play. The part of Christopher Bluff, formerly played by Mr. Donnelly, is this season in the hands of Steve Jennings, for many years understudy for Mr. Donnely, and for the past five years leading comedian of Hoyt & Mc-Kee's farce comedy productions.
